Brescia, May 29.

TH E Proveditore-General Delfino having made all necessary Preparations, for receiving and entertaining magnificently, at the Charge of the Republick of Venice, the Queen of Spain and her Retinue in her Passage through their Territories, sent the 23d Instant Count George Alegri with 4 Gentlemen, 8 Led-Horses, 2 Pages, and 6 Footmen, from Verona to Alathere to compliment Her Majesty; and an Hour after the Proveditore-General himself met her with a very noble Train, preceded by 2 Regiments of Foot with their Grenadiers at their Head, follow'd by a Troop of Horse Arm'd with Helmets, the Equipages of the Officers and Persons of Quality attending him, and his Excellencies own Equipage. The latter consisted of 12 Led-Horses, with Accoutrements of Crimson Velvet embroidered with Gold, led by a like Number of Grooms in Scarlet Liveries trim'd with Gold Gallow; 12 Valets on Horseback in the like Livery; 4 Trumpeters; 4 Hautbois; and 1 Kettle drummer; 8 Pages richly cloath'd and well-mounted, and a good Number of Footmen walking before his Excellency, who was on Horseback; He was cloath'd in Crimson Camlet, with Diamond-Buttons; and was follow'd by 8 Cavaliers richly clad and mounted on excellent Horses; 2 Generals di Battaglia, a great Number of Gentlemen and Officers; 12 Coaches with 6 Horses; and 2 Troops of Cuirassiers. The Proveditore-General complimented Her Majesty, and with this Train conducted her to Verona, where all the Houses were illuminated. She proceeded from thence the 25th, and the 26th at 9 a Clock at Night came hither and found all the City illuminated. The 27th in the Morning her Majesty heard Mass in the Cathedral, and receiv'd the Compliments of the Duke of Parma, Prince Gaston de Medicis, Prince Ercolani the Emperour's Ambassador at Venice, and many other Persons of Quality. Yesterday she gave Audience to the Ambassadors of the State of Milan, and this Morning pursu'd her Journey towards Palazzuolo, the Proveditore-General Delfino accompanying her to Canonica.

'The Advices in the last Paris Gazette, relating to the War in Spain, which for Want of Room were omitted in our former Papers, are as follow.

From the Paris Gazette, dated June 16.

Madrid, May 29. We have the following News by Letters from Lerida of the 19th of this Month. The Duke of Orleans arriv'd at Lerida the 12th at Noon, and in the Evening all the Troops that were to pass the Segra, encamp'd at Alcarraz under the Command of the Count de Besons, M. de Avarey, M. de Labadie, and M. de Medinilla. The Count d'Estain with his Detachment, remain'd in the Camp of Tor de Segra. The 13th about 6 in the Morning, the Troops, Ammunition, Artillery, and Baggage, began to pass the Bridge, and his Royal Highness having caus'd them all to file off in very good Order, pass'd the Bridge with the 2 Battalions of the King's Guards. The 14th 2 Miquelets on Horseback, of a Troop of 40 form'd by Adamel Vaile, were taken Prisoners. The Duke of Orleans treated with great Favour all the Inhabitants of the Places he pass'd through, which have return'd to Obedience; he forbid the using them ill in any Manner; and caus'd some Soldiers who did not observe exact Discipline to be punish'd. He had Advice, that the Count de Staremberg was encamp'd with all the Troops he could draw together, between la Esplugade Francoli and Montblanc, having left some Troops of Horse and Hussars at Pont, Agzamont, and Belpuch. The Chevalier de Hasfel was arriv'd with the Body he commands on the Bank of the Ebro, over against Tortosa, and he had 100 Men to work to make a Bridge of Communication with the Army of the Duke of Orleans. Letters from Alcantara advise, that a Party of the Garrison having seiz'd some large Cattle near Castel-davis, were charg'd in their Return by a Troop of Horse that came out of that Place; and that after a brisk Skirmish, in which the Lieutenant of the Portuguese and some Troopers were taken, they got off with their Booty. Two English Detachments of those Soldiers that arriv'd with Admiral Leake, reported, that the 2 Regiments he brought were very weak, many Men dying of Sicknefs in the Voyage. His Catholick Majesty to reward the Fidelity of the Town of Xixona situate within 4 Leagues of Alicante, has confer'd on it the Title of a City with a Territory adjoining, allowing it to put a Flower-de-Lys into its Arms: He has exempted it for 4 Years from all sorts of Duties, suppress'd the Reats belonging there to Lords who are in Rebellion, and establish'd a Castellan in the Castle. We have Advice, that the Flotilla sail'd from Cadix the 23d for America.

From the Camp at Ginestar, June 1. The overflowing of the Segra and the Cinca hindring the laying Bridges over those 2 Rivers, the Duke of Orleans caus'd the Troops to pass them the 12th over the Bridges of Fraga and Lerida. He march'd the 13th, and encamp'd at Sonier within 3 Leagues of Lerida, whence the Count d'Estain who was there with 4 or 5000 Men, march'd the same Day, having Orders to keep one Day before the Army, to open the Passages for them. The 14th the Army arriv'd at Llar de Cans, where they halted the 15th and 16th on the side of the Ebro, over against Flix, where M. d'Arenne was with the rest of the Army which he had drawn together there. The Boats design'd for making a Bridge, arriv'd at the same Time, laden with Bread. The 17th Men were set to Work to make a Bridge, but the Rapidity of the Stream in that Place, and its stony Bottom where Anchors would not take hold, preventing the Design, the Army march'd the 18th to Garcia; whence the Count d'Estain, who got thither 2 Days before, had oblig'd the Troops which the Enemy had there, at Ginestar, and other very difficult Passages of the Mountains, to retire towards Tortosa. At the same time Don Joseph Vallejo, Caprain in the Regiment of Asturias, advancing to the Road between Tortosa and Tarragona, with 100 Horse and 200 Foot, met 30 Horse and a like Number of Foot, who were conducting to Tarragona 65 Prisoners taken in the Kingdom of Valencia, among which was a Company of Grenadiers of the Regiment of Charolois. He surrounded and took them all, and brought them to the Camp with the Prisoners which he had rescu'd. There remain'd a difficult Pass that was very easie to defend, call'd the Pass of Burro. The Count de Staremberg had caus'd 1000 Foot and 200 Horse to advance to Falsete the 22d, to support the Troops that guarded that Passage. But they abandon'd it on the approach of the Count d'Estain, who the 23d encamp'd over against Mora. The 24th the Army pass'd those Defiles with Design to attack the Enemy, if the main Body of their Troops had joy'd those which were at Falsete: But Don Juan de Zerezedo advancing that Way with a Detachment, they retir'd to Cambrils on the Sea-side. So the Army continu'd their March, and the 25th in the Morning arriv'd at Ginestar, where they found abundance of Forrage. The same Day the Duke of Orleans gave Order for making a Bridge half a League higher, where the River was less rapid. It was finish'd the 26th, and the Baggage of the Troops was was first sent over. The 27th part of the Infantry under M. d' Arenne pass'd the Bridge to relieve those that were posted to guard the Head of it, and who re-join'd the Army. The 28th a Party was sent to drive the Enemy from a Post they were posses'd of: They fled at the Approach of our Men, 14 Soldiers excepted, who took that Occasion to Desert. The 29th the Duke of Orleans went out at 4 in the Morning to make a great Forrage in the Hills two Leagues from the Camp. There were among those Hills 5 or 600 Soldiers and Miquelets, which on the Approach of M. de Labadie, who went before at Midnight with 300 Horse or Dragoons, retir'd to the Tops of the Hills, but abandon'd them likewise, seeing 2000 Foot advancing to cut them off. The Village was Plunder'd, because several Mules belonging to the Army, which the Peasants had taken were found there: And the Duke return'd without the Loss of one Man. We have with us 12 Cannon of 24 pound Ball, and some Mortars. Within 6 or 7 Days we expect a Train of Artillery from Bayone. Fifteen Deserters came over to us to Day. In 3 or 4 Days we shall march agen.

London, June 18.

Some Private Letters from France by the last Dutch Mail, advise, that Count Staremberg had reinforc'd the Body of Troops he had drawn together at the River Francoli, with strong Detachments drawn out of divers Garrisons, particularly with all the Garrison of Barcelona except only 500 Men: And that 'twas apprehended his Design was to give Battle to the Duke of Orleans.
